

Phoenix Women's Commission International Women's Day Scholarship for Re-entry Women

Application Deadline: November 15, 2009

The City of Phoenix is sponsoring the International Women's Day Scholarship for 2009. These scholarships of $500 - $1500 are awarded to degree-seeking WIU students who meet the following criteria:

Scholarship Criteria:

- Female college student
- Been out of high school or college for 3 years or more and re-entering
- Registered or currently attending Western International University as an undergraduate student
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance (based on income, financial hardship, or other financial obstacles)
- A U.S. citizen, qualify for in-state tuition, and live in the City of Phoenix
- Have a minimum 2.5 grade point average (high school or college)

Application: Enclosed below

FERPA Release Form: Enclosed below

Reference Letters: Two reference letters from a relative/friend/instructor or professional colleague should be provided with your application.

Selection Process: The WIU Scholarship Committee will review all applications to ensure the applicants are qualified and may, at its discretion, elect to personally interview some or all of the candidates. Failure to be available at reasonable times for such an interview may disqualify an applicant from further consideration. The decision of the WIU Scholarship Committee is final. All applicants for the scholarship will receive notification of the Committee's decision by email.
